

Opinion

by Dennis Coday

View Author Profile

dcoday@ncronline.org

Follow on Twitter at @dcoday

Join the Conversation

For more Editorial cartoons, click here.

Breaking news yesterday morning was this: Pope revises catechism to say death penalty is 'inadmissible'. Today we have: Death penalty opponents welcome Pope Francis' catechism revision

Global Sisters Report has been chronicling the refugee experience in a series of stories called Seeking Refuge. Here is the latest report in that series: For Hondurans, staying home is more perilous than taking the migrant path

Read the GSR editorial about the series: Sisters' refugee ministries light the way forward

Sr. Thea Bowman expected to be approved for sainthood path Four major black clergy and religious groups — the National Black Sisters Conference, the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus, the National Association of Black Catholic Deacons and Spouses, and the National Black Catholic Seminarians Association — made the announcement July 31 along with the news that they will unite to advance the causes for sainthood for five African-American Catholics, with Bowman's expected to be added once the bishops approve.

Archbishop Raymond Hunthausen's casket was a simple wooden coffin produced on Vashon Island near Seattle. (M. Laughlin)

Farewell rites for Archbishop Hunthausen fill Seattle and Helena cathedrals

"The irony is that Archbishop Hunthausen, who was humiliated by the Vatican, did what Pope Francis asks of church leaders today. He lived simply and humbly. He listened and served. And he extended Christ's mercy and love to all, especially the poor, the suffering and the forgotten."

The hierarchy struggles with what do in wake of McCarrick scandal:

- Chair of the bishops' child and youth protection committee says: Archbishop McCarrick allegations put 'public inquiry' on all bishops
- A round up of statements -- Coakley of Oklahoma City, Etienne of Anchorage, Burbidge of Arlington, Virginia, Chaput of Philadelphia: Accused archbishop's

**fellow prelates weigh in on abuse scandal's impact**

- And as I noted yesterday, the abuse scandal is worldwide. Today in Jalandhar, India: **Kerala police to question bishop accused of sexually abusing nun**

In case you missed this announcement: **Sr. Maureen Paul Turlish, longtime advocate for sex abuse victims, dies at age 79** Of her, Fr. Thomas Doyle said, "She brought courage ... she was not afraid to write or call [the church hierarchy] on their duplicity."

Advertisement

Other news from hither and thither:

**Irish Church must confront issues to avoid 'decline into irrelevance'** Issues like celibacy, female ordination, its theology on sexuality and its hierarchical structure.

Rio de Janeiro -- Undeterred by death threats, a leading pro-choice campaigner said on Thursday that she is ready to give evidence to Brazil's top court in a hearing that could pave the way to decriminalize abortion, an issue which divides the Catholic nation. **Despite threats, Brazilian activist readies for abortion hearing**

The news website FiveThirtyEight is writing about the Catholic health care system in the USA. Its second piece: **Insurers Can Send Patients To Religious Hospitals That Restrict Reproductive Care**

Something to think about: **What the early church thought about God's gender**

Pope Francis' exhortation **Gaudete et Exsultate \("Rejoice and Be Glad"\)** has inspired many. NCR and Celebration have the resources to help you on your **journey of 'small holiness'**.

- Start your day inspired with daily Scripture reflections. Join NCR's sister publication, Celebration, for **Daily Bread**, a series of short reflections written by four authors who meet regularly to share the readings.
- Or reflect on **Pencil Preaching by Pat Marrin**. Every morning Pat Marrin breaks open the Word with a pencil sketch and a short meditation.