Our team of copy editors reads and posts most of what you see on the websites for National Catholic Reporter and Global Sisters Report (the NCR project focusing on women religious). The Copy Desk Daily provides insight on recommended news and opinion articles that have crossed our desks on their way to you.

NCR continues with Jason Berry's series on the history and implications of the Catholic clergy sex abuse crisis and cover-up.

Ireland's Minister for Culture and Heritage Josepha Madigan gave a talk Feb. 11 in Dublin. Originally scheduled to take place at the Mercy Sisters' International Centre, it had to be moved to a hotel after the sisters were warned that "busloads" of protestors would descend on the venue over the minister's support for abortion and campaign to liberalize divorce.
